The Song of a Hat

A toad, a toad,
I made a fine hat
Of star-dust and pie-crust
With plenty of fat.

I trimmed it with parsley
And bottles of ink
And several pipes
From an old kitchen sink.

I trimmed it with marbles
And pieces of glass
And half of the lace
Of a last summer's shoe.

I trimmed it with turnips
And pieces of chalk
And then put it on
And went out for a walk.

Our Trip West

By Mrs. Agnes Fuller Benson

September 11th we left Oklahoma and entered the panhandle of Texas, the high plains. Cattle were everywhere, and miles and miles of wire fences bordered the roads. The country was very beautiful, and the people were very kind and gentle. We saw many things that we had never seen before, and we were very happy and content.

The first of the moon was a little girl, and she was very beautiful. She was the daughter of a king, and she was very kind and gentle. She was the first of the moon, and she was the first of the stars.

NORTH NEWRY

Mrs. Hartley Hanson took dinner with Mrs. Oren Taylor, Tuesday, and called on Mrs. Paul Kilgore, and visited the Head of Tide school.

Harry Clifford is working for Carl Hakala. Mrs. Alice Tripp, Dorothy Tripp, Mrs. Frank Bennett and Eldon Bennett visited the Head of Tide school, and also visited Mrs. Herbert Morton. Fred Kilgore and Fred Wright have finished hauling timber for Mike Marshall and Mr. Wright's boarder has returned to his home in Glen.

Daniel Wright was home over the week end. Mrs. Hartley Hanson and family were up to Hastings Camp, Saturday.

Again it was Sunday, and the towns were quiet, but at a roadside stand run by two old-timers in ten-gallon hats and with the true Texas drawl, we got a most delicious watermelon which fully upheld Paul's assertion that Texas raises the best melons. At another small place we stopped for cake and everybody at the station came out when they saw the license-plate, among them a small Texan of some four years whose eye caught sight of the basket and its contents, said he, "You-all is got your little old cake right along with you, ain't you? Ah-ha!" Off to each side of the road we could see widely scattered clumps of trees and the fans of windmills, and the scene was very beautiful.

We saw our first tarantula walking along down middle of the road, and the size of a Hawsen's crab, and we went intentionally left the corner of the shell of a land tortoise causing him to turn cartwheels. Where Kansas gave us miles of roadside sunflowers, Texas gave us tumble-weeds, and the scene was very beautiful.

Mrs. P. M. Bennett and Kathryn returned from a visit with Mrs. Bennett's sister in Andover, Tuesday night. Charles Cooper has a big say orchard nearly all tinned. Howard Pearl is working Norman Bessy's orchard this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farrar visited at Joel Peters' the latter part of the week and on returning found a houseful of friends to surprise them with a shower. Many pretty and useful gifts were received and a pleasant evening spent by all. Refreshments of cake, punch and candy were served. About fifty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Farrar return to Massachusetts for the summer, April 3.

Mrs. Hattie Turner spent the day, Thursday, with Mrs. Harry Buck. Mr. and Mrs. E. Bennett called on Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, Thursday morning.

Donald Hays is confined to the house with abscesses in his head and is under the doctor's care.

SWEDEN

It begins to look like spring over this way.

Sweden had a great turnout for the closing of Beaver Pond in "Punkin Valley," March 26th, there were fifteen hundred people from this part of the town. They all got their limit and came home sober. George Brown came home from Bridgton, Sunday night, with Wendell Plummer for a few days.

Schools didn't start in Sweden March 27th, as they intended to, don't know when they will start.

Edna Plummer was laid up with a bad cold for about two weeks, he doesn't seem to gain very fast.

Wendell Plummer broke a road into the woods and hauled out a few loads of wood for Perry Willey, Monday.

The postman comes in the morning now until after mid time.

Percy Grover and wife spent the day at E. S. Plummer's, Sunday, March 26th. He went down to the pond and got his two fish, but he didn't know what he got the barley leaves to go with them or not.

Perhaps you will laugh when the writer tells you more about advertising in the Little Norway Advertiser. Soon after we wrote in we had a letter from a former resident of Sweden, now of Hartford, Conn. He called it butler and wanted a sample of it and it has gone post haste, and he didn't take it, and then we're no judge. Wait until we hear from him again.

OXFORD

Chicken Pie Supper—Old Fashioned Party.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Louise Henderson, Wednesday evening.

Harry Fuller entertained a table at bridge Friday evening. Those present were James Stanley, Joseph Robinson and Thomas Coulton.

Edward Dougherty came home Saturday from the C. M. G. Hospital, where he had been for a week. He is now home, and he is feeling very well.

Elmer Robinson is home from Abbott Academy in Andover, Mass., for the Easter recess.

A chicken pie supper was held at the Chapel Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Women's Guild. The general committee in charge of the supper was Mrs. Edith Benson, Mrs. Mildred Groves, Mrs. Nellie Hayes and Mrs. Mae Hanson. The dining room committee are Emily Sampson, Virginia Greenleaf, Helen Heslop, Helen Gillis and Caribel Smith.

General Awakening

High Finance Taking a Fall

By R. L. Cummings of West Paris

Pounded in a mortar, burned in the fire and tumbled from the balloon of high finance, the American people are beginning to arouse themselves from the propaganda sleep of title school and politics and look for a way out of the debacle. If our great democracy is to vindicate itself before the world, and show that the principles of self government are better than the rule of a few, we must not only find a way out, but must ascertain the cause, and a correct method of preventing the recurrence of the dangerous and destructive periods. Every man who puts the welfare of his home and country among his best thoughts in life, will devote his best thought and influence toward the accomplishment of this object.

We do not lack in goods produced, that should make the world well fed, well clothed, well housed and happy. We lack nothing in resources, both developed and undeveloped, and the country is full of men without employment whose object in life is to find employment that shall supply themselves and their dependents with these things that all should have.

There is nothing new in the assertion that the primary cause of this great national disaster is due to a few men of our men of great wealth, who by obtaining such wealth have so drained the people of their substance that they can no longer be paying customers for anyone.

The system of banking that they created and maintained, was so designed that it drained the resources of the country to their centralized institutions in New York, and made the savings and deposits of the people in their banks available for speculation in the stock market commonly known as Wall Street.

They have been the actual controlling factors in the transportation system, both by land and water, and have manipulated those institutions that have grown extremely rich while the transportation systems have grown exorbitantly poor, with empty treasures, to be filled by further assessments on the public.

To the people that trusted in them they have sold billions of dollars worth of stocks and bonds of foreign countries that it seems quite evident they must have known were of little value. The amount of money sent into foreign countries in this manner exceeds $200,000,000. We can get some comprehension of that amount by realizing that it is more than $1,000 from every family in the country.

Men that have raised their voice against these men and their methods have been called "Knobs, Radicals, Socialists etc." by political and financial beneficiaries of their system.

Today the public is painfully aware that they have been following false leaders. Two new and valuable additions to the ranks of the "Knobs" are Mr. Albert Chase National Bank and Frank A. Vanderbilt, former head of the National City Bank of N. Y. These gentlemen now come forward and publicly say that their own banking system is the cause of the economic illiterates. I remember their statement well, and said, that is true and you are a bigger one. His system kept on plundering and both statements have proven true.

We should say to them: Thank you gentlemen, you have told the truth. You were at least among those that stole the horse; now please tell us when we may expect the horse to be returned.

The alliance of business and crooked politics whose efforts were to create enormous wealth and power in the hands of a few people has so drained the people of the wealth that they have created by robbery that they are now unable to make the most of the enormous wealth that they have created. It is perfectly natural that depression should exist before our countrymen are organized, when we have no established central government and no established currency. Those conditions were man-made, and they were remedied by men. These are man-made and can be remedied by men. The amassing of the mountains of wealth in the hands of a few has been one of the major disasters of our country. We have created a country of great but badly distributed wealth. We have created a country of great but badly distributed wealth. We have created a country of great but badly distributed wealth.

A tax levied on the manufactured products of the farm for the relief of those who produce wheat and cotton, is but "Robbing Peter to pay Paul," and will be neither proper or adequate relief.

If those in authority fail to properly tax those with great incomes, that are beyond reasonable needs, and no adequate relief obtained, they must create an overbearing majority of the people who demand, not an income tax, but a capital levy, and will demonstrate that the best form of democracy can exist without billionaires.

GREENWOOD

We understand that a musical club which has recently been formed by some of the young men in Greenwood and vicinity will give their first entertainment on Friday evening of this week, in Greenwood. The occasion marks the opening of a small building on Giant Rock Hill, the use of which has been donated to the Greenwood neighborhood for the season by William Ellery, a summer resident of Bryant Pond, for their entertainments. Mr. Lang and Mr. Carl Brooks, both of Greenwood have donated their services in making necessary repairs and alterations. Mrs. Bryant has donated the use of some benches and Mr. Brooks the use of a stove.

The organization giving the entertainment is known as the Smoky Mountain Boys. A small admission fee will be charged, which will include refreshments. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance.

MILTON

Miss Clara Jackson visited friends in Portland over the week end. Gladys Virgin is staying at Earl Buck's for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Buck and children, Mrs. Mary Buck, visited over the week end. Saturday night and Sunday, March 19th and 20th.

Ben Lapham of Norway visited his brother, Francis Lapham, who is sick, a few days.

Auverne Lapham of Hanover visited his cousin, Francis Lapham one afternoon.

WELCHVILLE

Miss Nellie Walker was given a birthday party by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Walker, at their home, Tuesday evening, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock. Dancing and games were enjoyed by all. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and fancy cookies, punch and candy were served by Mrs. Grace Walker. Mrs. Helen Walker, Miss Walker received many nice and useful presents. Her parents gave her a nice cash chest.

The guests were as follows: Eddie and Olive Swain of South Paris, Edna and Fredrick, Mr. Merton Brown, Edna Hannaford, Marion and Barbara Scribner, Margaret Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Records, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Graff, Mrs. Mary, Leona McAllister, Mrs. of Norway, Frank Walker, Kenneth Ken-neth of South Paris, Nellie Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thurston are spending a few days at Bar Harbor visiting Mrs. Thurston's parents. They were accompanied by Mrs. Thurston's sister and boy from New York also Junior Thurston.

aged by Fire.

The Fryeburg Woman's Club met Friday, March 24th. Mrs. Ina Eastman was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Edna Whitney had charge of the music. The main feature of the meeting was an address "Topics of the Day in the Nation," delivered by Hon. Donald B. Partridge.

Today evening, March 21st, was Lagona night at the Kiwanis Club. The Avalanche group of the Girl Reserves served a delicious chicken supper and entertained with a program which consisted of three short plays, "Stars and Stripes," "The Post-Script" and "The Third Man," given by the group of Girl Reserves.

Mrs. Brackett entertained the Ladies of the G. A. R. at an all-day picnic and dinner held at the B. P. W.
club house.

Miss Force of Fryeburg, a student at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute, has won the swimming team. He is a member of the Student Body and Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. Force also received honors in swimming as a member of the college swim team.

Mrs. Margaret Gould met for an all day session Wednesday, dinner being served under the direction of Mrs. John Sargent and Mrs. Hazel Killion.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rand and family are expected to spend the summer
at Fryeburg and will occupy Miss Bessie Park's rent.

LIKE THE HORSE

If anything could forcibly illustrate the law of diminishing returns resulting from increasing costs beyond a reasonable figure, the three-cent letter postage has turned the trick.

Postal revenue has been lost which will never be regained from the same class of mail, for the simple reason that the public has devised ways to use third-class mail instead of first.

The same thing will take place with gasoline. As gas taxes are shoved up beyond reasonable figures, smaller cars will be used, or larger cars will be used less, and the volume sold will diminish, thereby producing less revenue for the state.

The same thing will take place with property. Beyond a certain point, the owner cannot pay taxes. When that day comes, he will let the city, county or state take it and the tax rolls will be dotted with unsalable property, and tax deficits will mount.

The public is no different than the horse. You can lead the horse to water, but you can't make him drink. You can tax the public beyond its ability to pay,
but you can't make it pay.

The political subdivisions of this nation, from the smallest hamlet to the Federal government should readjust the tax bill and public expenditures to fit the ability of the people to pay.

The papers are filled with reports of meetings of tax experts, state tax commissions and other organizations of "tax spenders" who are in a large measure to blame for the present taxation problems of the people. As advisers of the financial affairs of the people, they have for years taken the easiest course, ac-quiescing in public demands for extravagant public expenditures without raising their voices in protest or showing where exorbitant spending was leading the people.

Even today, most of the "tax experts", instead of recommending drastic cuts in public expenditures, are hunting ways and means to increase existing taxes or find new methods of taxation.

The same thing is going to happen to every city, county, state and the nation itself, that has happened to millions of families—they are going to have to get along on less money than they thought was possible a year or two years ago.

Instead of increases in taxes or new methods of taxation to balance public deficits, there is going to have to be decreased taxation and decreased public demands on a balanced scale, which will eventually wipe out the deficits.

Families are paying up their bills now on reduced income simply by reducing their expenses below their income. Governments will have to do the same thing.

signing. See ad in this issue.

The weekly shopping day was a peach and Hulda found and puttered to get on the move. Pretty hard going for the family horse as grandfather's old sleigh never was built for bare ground. After considerable grinding and straining the harness was landed in Norway Village.
Hulda was rarin' to go and never minded
the jolting.
